

17, 1903

The Owingsville

VOL. XXV.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1903

57 When you have a news item or wish to communicate with this Outlook office by phone ring up 57

Payne, of Grange City, is talking of building a flouring mill at Salt Lick.

It is currently believed that new corn will sell at $3 per bbl. at the very start.

W. P. Kimball spoke here Monday in the interest of the Democratic ticket.

Eugene Brother and W. Ray Patterson have consolidated their grocery stores.

W. D. Bailey, of East Fork, sold his tobacco to Snedegar Bros., of Wyoming, at 8c.

Fall proper will begin about next Sunday. Fall grass will not grow until next year.

The Mt. Sterling water tower can now be seen from the unfinished tower of the Court-house.

J. M. Fuqua, the new pastor, will preach at the M. E. Church next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

Slate Valley and Salt Lick base ball clubs will play on Kimbrough's lot Thursday (today) at 2:30 p. m.

Warning.—Good white girl to assist in house-work. No washing. For further information apply at this office.

T. S. Shroat sold four mule colts to T. S. Robertson last week for $117.50; Dr. G. W. Conner one to same for $24.

Mrs. A. W. Walden entertained at lunch in honor of Miss Louise Walden Saturday morning from 9:30 to 11:30.

The little son of Wm. Clakenbeard, aged two years, died Thursday of whooping-cough and pneumonia on East Fork.

Elder Joseph R. Jones, of Odessa, will begin a two-weeks' meeting at Slate Valley Church, beginning Thursday, Sept. 24th.

Notice.—Receipts must come out of my horse book with my signature attached before account can be settled. DR. G. W. CONNER.

Rolla Hart leads in the instruction vote for the Democratic nomination for R. R. Commissioner. Convention at Mt. Sterling Sept. 21.

J. B. Wilhoite, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, and J. R. Hindman, of Columbia, will speak at the Court-house here next Monday.

Notice.—All accounts not paid within the next ten days will be put out for collection. By order of the Board of Managers.

OWINGSVILLE TELEPHONE CO.

The brick work on the Court-house tower was about finished Tuesday. The bell will occupy the last brick apartment. The clock apartment will be of wood covered with slate.

STEALING WATER.—If a person has only a scant supply of water he needs to guard it day and night. Water thieves are about. Two instances of theft of water hauled to town are reported.

SALE.—Charles Riddle, of near Odessa, will have a sale of his live stock, etc., Sept. 26th. See bills for particulars. Mr. Riddle intends to move to Macon county, Ill., about October 1st to make his home.

NEW FIRM.—As successors to Oscar Palmer we are prepared to do everything in the line of blacksmith and carriage repair work, having first-class smiths and painters. Your patronage is solicited. ESTILL & HONAKER.

REUNION.—The Federal veterans who belonged to the Ky. Seventh Cavalry, Eighteenth Infantry and Fortieth Mounted Infantry will be interested to know that there will be a reunion of these regiments at the Falmouth, Ky., fair Wednesday, Sept. 30th.

RIDDLE A WINNER.—Judge Robert Riddle, Estill county, will probably get the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge to succeed Redwine. Judge Riddle was Commonwealth's Attorney and Circuit Judge in this district before the State was redistricted.

SCHOOL AT SEMINARY.—Prof. R. Lee Davis, of Lexington, on account of the illness of his wife, did not open school at the Seminary Monday and has given up the position. The trustees are bending their energies to secure a competent principal to open the school shortly and are confident of success.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.—One night last week a meat-house belonging to J. Taylor Ellington, near Moore's Ferry, was destroyed by fire, together with a large quantity of meat and fifteen hundred pounds of fat. Ellington had had trouble with Wm. Rice, a Rowan county neighbor, a few days before, and he immediately became suspicious. Ellington telegraphed to Kenova, W. Va., for bloodhounds, and when they arrived they at once took up the scent and traced it to Rice's home. The officers, among paying the dogs arrested Rice and took him to the Morehead jail. The dogs are the same ones that were used in tracking the would-be robbers of the Salt Lick bank last March.

PERSONAL.

Alfred Eden, of Mt. Carmel, was in to see us Monday.

Eugene Minihan went to Cincinnati Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Mary Burbridge returned Sunday from a trip to Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Slesser went to Cincinnati Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Gillon made a business trip to Cincinnati the past week.

Miss Annie Sheehan, who has typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Dr. Henry J. Dalley and Jno. E. Sheehan were in Carlisle Sunday.

Nathan Barrett, of Kilgore, the Republican Senatorial nominee, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Thornton Chidester and two little daughters, of Farmers, were in town last Thursday.

Miss Maude Coyle, after a visit to relatives here, went to Louisa, Lawrence county, Monday.

Capt. W. A. McGinety, of Falmouth, came last week to join his wife at Arthur Byron's.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Atchison, of Wyoming, attended the Ewing fair from Thursday till Saturday.

Mrs. Henry T. Hopkins has returned from a two-weeks' visit to Miss Cora Sevier, at Harboursville.

Scott Goodpaster and Wallace Guggli, Jr., went Monday to attend Kentucky University, at Lexington.

Mrs. James A. Barnes returned last week from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Melissa Gault, at Louisa, Lawrence county.

Misses Lillie Heflin and Nora Farris, of Tilton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Heflin Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Fannie Goodpaster returned home to Mt. Sterling last Saturday, taking Judge N. R. Patterson's baby with her.

Sheriff Seth Botta, W. R. Patterson, Sherman and Scott Goodpaster were in Mt. Sterling Wednesday of last week.

Conner Ewing and W. F. Mark accompanied Will L. Nixon as far as Cincinnati on his return home to Peoria, Ill., Thursday.

Chessie Carter, of Bonny, Morgan county, came Saturday afternoon to visit his great-uncle James Carter on upper Slate Creek.

Rascom Sturgell went to Cincinnati Monday to buy a stock of holiday goods. He will take a course in engraving before returning.

W. B. Whitt, of Olive Hill, the Democratic nominee for Senator, was here Monday mingling with the boys and was a caller at this office.

Miss Kerna, of near Bethel, returned home Monday, after a visit to her uncle Geo. A. Peed. Little Miss Naunie Peed accompanied her home.

Mrs. James M. Ross went to Mt. Sterling Wednesday to attend Mrs. J. Roger Gatewood's "at home" Thursday night and to visit relatives.

Miss Louise Walder, daughter of Bullitt Walden, deceased, of Salt Lake City, Utah, came Wednesday of last week to visit her uncle Dr. A. W. Walden.

Millard F. Fouch, of Ellottsville, the Republican nominee for the Legislature from the Bath, Bowen district, was a pleasant caller at this office Monday.

J. W. Pierce, of Turrell, Ark., who is in on a visit to Salt Lick, was in town Monday. Mrs. Pierce accompanied him as far as her brother's, at Anchorage, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wasson, of Hope, Indiana, came last week on a visit to relatives. Mrs. Wasson was Miss Belle Tackett before marriage and was reared near town.

Misses Era and Viola Havens, of Grange City; Bertha Bittlinger, of Steptone; Herbert Costigan, of Olympia; May and Walter Barnes, of Preston; May and Norman Atchison, of Wyoming, will board and attend school at Mrs. Cora Conner's during this term.

FOR SALE.—70 acres land in Bagland oil field; good house and barn; good orchard; free use of gas for domestic purposes; two gas wells on farm. Royalty on oil and gas wells on farm included in sale. BERT MCKINNEY.

CARD OF THANKS.—I hereby return my warmest thanks and express my appreciation of the many kindnesses and words of comfort on the part of the friends and neighbors during the sad days of my sister Mrs. Sarah Bailey's and brother Wesley's illness and death. MARCUS ARBACSMITH.

COURT DAY.—The crowd was fairly large here Monday. The merchants report trade from dull to better than expected on account of the drought.

In the stock line the trade in mule colts was very lively, prices being high according to quality. Not much was done in other stock, prices ruling very mean.

Some 200 cattle were offered, 500 to 600 sheep and a few hogs. About one-third of the cattle were sold. No trade in sheep. The hogs sold at 5c.

T. S. Shroat sold a 3-year-old horse to James Day for $100. Goodpaster sold a horse to same for $70.

Judge Lewis Apperson bought weanling mare mule colt of Tho Wells for $70.

M. C. Saunders & Co. bought 4 weanling mules at $27 to $50; Saunders & Day ten at about the same prices; Armstrong & Terhune, about twenty at same.

Blue Rice sold a horse to Vanceburg man for $140.

John English bought three mule Philip Fleming sold two 1,025 feeding steers to Robert Gatewood at $3.65.

LEXINGTON TROTTER RACES.—The Lexington Trotter commences Tuesday, October 6th, and continues ten days. Every day there is a grand stake trotted, and all the sensation harness horses of the East, North and West are entered, and many here for the first time.

At COST RACK

Mrs. Estill is showing a nice line of Dress Goods, Notions, Underwear and Millinery at Cost for Cash. Come early and get choice.

Mrs. J.

We have at prices

and see to all and

Black

Hamburg

Tin

No. 2

4 in

Serd

Shav

Grat

Hat